

the CARDINAL'S ANNUAL STEWARDSHIP APPEAL

Sharing God's Gifts Throughout the Archdiocese of New York

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish Bronx

In the West Bronx, an extraordinary Eucharistic Procession took place on June 22 for the Feast of Corpus Christi, drawing over 15,000 people. This remarkable turnout was supported by extensive material efforts and resources that were essential to encouraging participation and guiding the faithful throughout the event.

Seeing the people openly proclaim our faith, that Jesus is present in the Eucharist, that Jesus always walks with us, it was something beautiful...Jesus [was] literally walking through the streets of the Bronx, doing miracles as He did in the past.

- Francisco De Leon

I'm so glad I can get help from others that do not know me. Times are hard for me, but knowing that there is a Church that I can come to, and knowing there are people who care for others, is wonderful.

Sts. Peter and Paul and Assumption Parish Staten Island

At Sts. Peter and Paul and Assumption Parish on Staten Island, funding from the grants program is helping cover the cost of the food, catering, and essential supplies for the parish's food pantry, a ministry that provides crucial support to people in need who look to the Church in tough times.

St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish Brewster

At St. Lawrence O'Toole Parish, an ongoing Parish Mission Series is engaging the community through prayer, worship, and faith formation. The grant has already made possible a moving Parish Revival—featuring speakers, worship music, and Eucharistic adoration—with more events planned to help parishioners grow in their faith and share it with the world.

I was reminded that God is always waiting with open arms to comfort us as we are. At Eucharistic Adoration, with a spotlight on the Eucharist in a dark church, we were invited to touch the veil over the Monstrance. We felt a transfer of true power from Jesus to us, and of peace.

- Margaret & Artie Blank
