

Sharing God's Gifts Pastoral Grants Program

The Archdiocese of New York's Sharing God's Gifts Pastoral Grants Program is a new initiative dedicated to strengthening parish life. Funded through the Cardinal's Annual Stewardship Appeal, it helps parishes bring the Gospel to life in transformative ways.

The program encourages parishes to reimagine faith formation, outreach, and engagement through creative initiatives that meet the pastoral needs of today's Church.

It supports five key areas of ministry:

1. Adult Discipleship and Marriage Formation
2. Respect Life Initiatives
3. Youth Faith Formation
4. Youth and Young Adult Ministry
& University Apostolate
5. Cultural Diversity in Ministry

By investing in these ministries, supporters of the Appeal help parishes grow in faith and community. In its first year, 47 grants were awarded, with even more expected in 2026.

“Seeing the people openly proclaim our faith, that Jesus is present in the Eucharist, that Jesus always walks with us, it was something beautiful...Jesus [was] literally walking through the streets of the Bronx, doing miracles as He did in the past.”
